basic doctrines of the christian faith are in this volume lessons include studies on faith repentance baptism and the mission of the church today the 13 lesson format make it a wonderful sunday school class study outline studies in christian doctrine has been a primer for many thousands of bible school students who as missionaries ministers and lay christians have carried its teaching to every part of our world george p pardington son of a methodist minister had the advantage of a classical education drew university earning his doctorate in 1898 from new york university early drawn to a b simpson and his friday meetings in new york city pardington devoted most of his professional life to teaching at simpson s missionary training institue now nyack new york college severely handicapped as the result of a merciless beating at age 10 by his schoolteacher pardin gton did not let physical suffering suppress his victorious spirit or his keen sense of humor he regaled his students with his wit and motivated them by the warmth of his unwavering devotion to jesus christ and the scriptures published posthumously following the author s untimely death in 1915 at age 49 has been in continuous print for nearly three quarters of a century the chapters of this book prepared personally by the author just prior to his death distill the essense of his classroom teaching since the dawn of the fifth century theology students religious scholars and ordinary christians have turned to this volume for instruction written by one of the foremost leaders in the development of christian thought it offers clear guidance on how to read the bible and understand the true meaning of scripture more than ever teenagers need to be grounded in a systematic understanding of scripture this classic text by louis berkhof has been carefully updated to enable modern readers to comprehend and apply its teachings providing an accessible one volume guide to christian doctrine this is a thorough re write of the first edition since the original was published many students and teachers of doctrine in theological colleges and beyond have been learning to take more seriously the global context of their work and to recognise the difference made by facets of their identities and social locations like race class gender and disability in this edition mike higton seeks to do justice to this learning and invites readers to understand doctrine as an unfinished conversation between many different voices fully updated for clarity and yet retaining its role as a rigorous introduction to its subject the book includes new interruptions which introduce voices that question the book s arguments and offer new directions for readers to pursue this is not a theological trestise on the one hand nor on the other is it a volume of sermons like its predecessor the volume on prayer it has a distinct office to fulfill an office that in the judgment of the editor is of immense importance for between and the professor s lecture room and the preacher s study there is a great gulf fixed in the lecture room the lectures on systematic theology are laboriously entered into notebooks which are useful for the exit examinations but when the active work of the ministry begins and so many sermons have to be prepared every week the cupboard into which those notebooks have been stowed away is left undisturbed the preacher begins to spin his sermons out of his own brains with the assistance of such popular books as happen to be at his hand from the preface christian doctrine has introduced thousands to the tenets of the christian faith this newly revised edition reflects changes in teh church and society and takes into account new works in reformed theology gender references in the bible racism pluralism ecological developments and liberation theologies an accessible textbook for all engaging with christian doctrine for the first time a valuable resource and suitable for all clergy and all training for ministry maurice wiles was regius professor of divinity at the university of oxford from 1970 1991 to celebrate his seventieth birthday a group of distinguished friends and colleagues have written this important series of original and perceptive essays on the twin themes of making and remaking christian doctrine the topics covered in this thought provoking collection range from the notion of divine action in hebrew wisdom literature to reflections on the nature of the ministry from the concept of god and the doctrines of christology and of the trinity to the character of theological reflection and from revelation and tradition to the lex orandi the nature of interpretation in religion and the historical basis of theological understanding
